of nine cars each left the Pennsylvania station for Atlanta, Ga., where there will be a special season of one week. More than 150 members of the company, including practically the entire Italian contingent and a large part of the German section, took their departure for the South. The scenery and costumes for the seven operas that will be sung in Atlanta were packed in six Director Gatti-Casazza and other officials of the company had preceded the main division.

The Atlanta season will begin tomorrow night with a performance of "Les Huguenots" and on successive evenings "The Tales of Hoffmann," "Carmen," "Rigoletto," "L'Amore dei tre men," "Rigoletto," "L'Amore dei tre Re," "Die Zauberflote" and "Madame Sans-Gene" will follow.

Principal Artists to Be Heard.

All the principal members of the com pany will take part, including Miss Far-tar, Miss Bori, Mmes. Hempel, Kurt. Schumann, Case, Mattfeld, Braslau, Garrison and Curtis and Messrs. Martinelli, Scotti, Amato, Martin, De Segurola, Sem-bach, Goritz, Rothier and Didur. These artists, together with the conductors. Polacco, Hageman and Papi, were some of those who left New York at 1:30 this morning.

Although the majority of the singers have another week before going to their summer homes, already the European departures are in order. At noon yesterday Arturo Toscanini, principal con-ductor and general musical director of the Metropolitan, left for Genoa on the Italian liner Duca degli Abruzzi, A passenger on the same ship was Emmy Destinn, the Bohemian soprano.
